[fr]Après une nuit et une fin de matinée orageuse, nous partons pour trois petits vols.[/fr][en]After a night filled with thunderstorm we are able to take off for three short flights.[/en]

[fr]Les Sables d'Olonne après le décollage.[/fr][en]After take off the city of Les Sables d'Olonne is visible through the clouds. The runway is very short and the flaps did not extend. Note for the future : in case a flap failure the runway must be at least 700m long. On the ground we found the fuse had melted.

Après l'arrivée, Sabine s'offre un massage l'heure tant que je pars à la découverte des environs à vélo.[/fr][en]This is the rather short landing runway at Bell-Isle. The runway seemed even shorter as the flaps did not extend. Note for the future : in case a flap failure the runway must be at least 700m long. On the ground we found the fuse had melted.

At the hotel, Sabine goes for a massage and I explore the surroundings by bicycle.[/en]
